DEBS AS A WITNESS

A LARGE AUDIENCE PRESENT.

The President of the American Railway Union Tells of the Conditions He Found Existing at Pullman and How the Strike Developed—Starvation Wages For Laboring People.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—By far the largest audience which has yet been in attendance upon the strike commission sessions was present yesterday, attracted by the appearance as a witness of President Debs of the American Railway union. The courtroom was crowded from the bench to the doorways, when President Debs took the witness chair.

"Now tell us, in your own way, Mr. Debs," said Commissioner Wright, "what you know of the Pullman strike and its results."

Leaning forward in his seat the tall leader of the great strike began in a low, clear voice a recital which gradually became more earnest and forcible as he proceeded until it developed into almost an oration. He told of having received word that a strike in Pullman was imminent and of his coming to Chicago to investigate.

"I found, he said, 'that the men were working for the Pullman company at wages upon which they could not live. I found that salaries had been cut time and again until skilled mechanics were working their lives away for wages not sufficient for a common laborer. That the town of Pullman, with its shops, its houses and its stores, was so schemed that every penny the workman made found its way back into the company's coffers. In fact, I found the workmen of Pullman in a pitiable condition and determined to do all in my power as president of the American Railway union to improve their condition. The strike followed, and was ordered by themselves. Then came the boycott, ordered by duly elected delegates to our convention, and then followed the railroad strikes, ordered by the various local unions, each of which had grievances of its own."

Mr. Debs then told of the strike, his account differing but little from that of other American Railway union officials who had preceded him on the witness stand.

"Would the railroad strikes have occurred if there had been no Pullman trouble?" asked Commissioner Wright.

"No, the Pullman strike was the prime cause. We desired to stop Pullman's cars and shut off his income, thus forcing him to arbitrate. But the railroad men had grievances of their own. The General Managers' association had been organized with the vowed intention of giving assistance to railroads in labor troubles. The evident aim was to drive organized labor from existence. No sooner had this association formed than a systematic reduction of railroad wages all over the country began. The cuts were made on one road at a time and in one department at a time, but the systematic regularity with which they appeared was sufficiently significant. The men were ready to strike and felt they had cause. But the trouble would not have come when it did had it not been for the Pullman matter. The time was unpropitious, business depressed and money was scarce. I did not order the strike. I had not the power. The men did that themselves. But I do not wish to shirk any responsibility and am willing to say that I heartily concurred in and approved of the action taken by the men. As to violence, I always condemned it. I have written and spoken against it, believing and knowing that a strike can not be won by violence. As to telegrams sent from our office counselling violence, I know nothing of any such epistles."

"What about the 'buy a gun' telegram?" asked Commissioner Kernan. "That is easily explained. The telegram was sent by a private secretary to a friend in Butte and was merely a playful expression. It was sent as such and was so understood."

Mr. Debs then said that within five days after the strike was declared the union had the railroads beaten.

"They were paralyzed," he said, "but just at that time injunctions were soon broadcast and shortly afterwards the officials of the American Railway union were arrested for contempt of court. That beat us. It was not the railroads, or the army, but the power of the United States court that beat us. About that time a thing occurred which I desire to mention. General Miles came to Chicago, called on the General Managers' association and the next day was quoted in an interview as saying that he had broken the backbone of the strike. Now I consider that call of General Miles as vulgarly out of place. He had no more right to consult with the General Managers' association than he had to consult with the men of our union. I might say, too, that it seems strange that all of our letters and telegrams were made public property, while not a line of the railroads' correspondence was published. If it had been I think we could prove that the general managers at one of their secret meetings declared they would stamp the American Railway union out of existence."

In reply to a question Mr. Debs said that the union had taken every possible means to prevent rioting and disorder. "We objected to the presence of the federal troops," he said, "but not to state troops and police. If I remember rightly, no serious outbreak occurred until the federal troops arrived, as their presence inflamed the men."

The witness then told of the trouble with the railroad brotherhoods. "The brotherhoods have outlived their usefulness," he said, "and for that reason I left the fireman's organization. They were, I fear, jealous of the American Railway union, and helped to defeat us. There is now a movement on foot to form a grand and united railroad labor organization. Within three days a proposition will be submitted to the other railroad orders whereby all present officers of the American Railway union and other unions shall resign, with no possibility of election to office. The principal cause of strife thus being removed, an organization will be effected, if the brotherhoods will consent, which shall include all railroad employees."

"Do you claim," asked Mr. Wright, "that the railroads were responsible for the strike because they insisted upon hauling Pullman cars?"

"No, sir; the American Railway union was responsible for it, but under aggravating circumstances. The general managers are united to reduce wages. The employees are united to resist such reductions. In case of a reduction that leads to a strike, we think the company is responsible."

"What is your opinion as to methods of averting strikes?" asked Commissioner Worthington.

"My own idea, and it is the idea of the American Railway union, is unity all the railroad men of the country. A power like that prudently managed would avert strikes. The railroad managers would recognize the wisdom of treating it fairly and meeting it in a conciliatory spirit."

"Do you believe a strike is justifiable that interferes with public convenience?"

"I believe striking is justifiable no matter what the result when it is to resist degradation and enslaving conditions."

"Do you believe in government ownership of railroads?" asked Mr. Kernan. "Yes, sir; I believe the government ownership of railroads is decidedly better than railroad ownership of the government."

There was the heartiest kind of laughter and applause at the epigram, and it was some time before quiet was restored.

In conclusion, the witness said he believed the American Railway union was stronger numerically and every other way than it ever had been.

Mr. Debs was followed by P. H. Morrissey, first vice grand master of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. The feeling between the two orders, he said, was not friendly. The railway union had come into existence deriding the older organizations, and it had naturally made them feel bitter. The brotherhood believed in the extension of trade union principles, but did not believe in such a unification as the American Railway union proposed. In the instructions to its men regarding the strike the brotherhood took the ground that it was not approving the strike at Pullman or the boycott, and therefore expected its men to do their regular duty but not to go outside of that for the purpose of doing strikers' work. It did not believe in sympathetic strikes, but individually the witness believed in government ownership of railroads and voluntary arbitration. The brotherhood regarded the proposed government license as an interference with private employment.

E. E. Clark of Cedar Rapids, Ia., was the next witness. He is the grand chief of the Order of Railway Conductors. He told the same story of hostility between the brotherhood and union. His organization had made an effort in Washington to secure a law for the licensing of railroad men, but the bill never got out of committee.

This closed the hearing of witnesses for the day.

The commissioners have notified George M. Pullman to appear and testify and will also call for several members of the General Managers' association. The date for Mr. Pullman's testimony has not yet been set.

BIG FIRE IN MEMPHIS.

Nearly a Quarter of a Million Dollars Worth of Property Destroyed.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 21.—Fire broke out at 1 o'clock this morning in a 4-story building at No. 376 and 378 Shelby street, occupied by the Mansfield Drug company, and within less than an hour's time, nearly a quarter of a million dollars worth of property was destroyed.

The fire started among the chemicals and oils in the rear of the Mansfield building and spread so rapidly that the firemen soon lost control of it. A general alarm was turned in and every engine in the city was brought to the scene. Finding that they could not subdue the flames, the firemen devoted their work to saving adjoining property, and after an hour's battle succeeded in confining the fire to the block in which it originated.

The Cayoso hotel is separated from the burned block by a narrow alley, and when the alarm was sounded a panic occurred among the guests, but all of them escaped without injury. The hotel was saved by the firemen after a hard struggle.

It is impossible to give an accurate list of the losses at this hour, but the following firms have suffered heavily: Mansfield Drug company; Fader & Co., wholesale grocers, and A. B. Tredwell & Co., wholesale grocers and cotton factors.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Aug. 21.—"I will not permit this prize fight to occur within the corporate limits of Sioux City," said Mayor Fletcher in speaking of the effort being made to get the Corbett-Jackson match here. "What is more, I doubt if it will be allowed to be fought on Iowa soil. So far as my jurisdiction is concerned I shall unalterably oppose the movement to have the battle fought here."

BIG BATTLE IN COREA

Japanese Win a Great and Easy Victory.

HEAVY LOSS TO THE CHINESE.

It Is Reported That Fourteen Hundred Chinese Were Slain—The Japs Stole a March on Them and Took Their Enemy by Surprise—Latest Report From the Seat of War.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—The Examiner prints the following special:

SHICH-GEN, Corea, Aug. 3.—A bloody battle has just been fought at Soughwan. This place is the headquarters of the Japanese General Oshima and is one of the most important villages of the kingdom. The Chinese have very strong fortifications at Soughwan and 17,000 troops are said to be stationed there. The Japanese were determined to capture the arms and provisions and beat the army by a clever bit of intrigue.

They gave out that they were going to march to Assan, and in fact they did parade for a considerable distance in that direction, but no sooner were they convinced of the success of their scheme in making the Chinese believe they had left the settlement than they marched with a rush straight up to the fortifications, attacking them in a body. They made a clean sweep of everything in the course of five hours' fighting.

The Chinese were unprepared and for the sake of truth, be it known, they were "chin-chinned" the war joss—that is, bowing, kowtowing and firing crackers off to a big wooden deity set up on a cannon ball. About 1,400 Chinese were killed in the engagement and 70 Japanese.

The Chinese with their usual cowardice deserted many of the Fan Wyi (foreign devil officers), and when given orders to resist the advance of the enemy, turned and fell upon their swords, preferring suicide rather than to be murdered by the Japanese.

The Japanese officers and men fought like tigers. Some of the methods of warfare were ridiculously gruesome and harrowing. For instance the Chinese, it is told, used old fashioned stinkpots (bowls slung on poles and filled with sulphuric acid and other bad smelling deadly acids, which kill perhaps more quickly than a rifle shot). One stinkpot cast in among a dozen soldiers kills every man inside of a few seconds.

The Mongols also resorted to wooden axes and to long bamboo poles. Many of them threw their guns away deliberately when they caught a glimpse of the enemy surrounding them like a demon cloud.

It is impossible to accurately describe the barbarities which these people practice in their methods of war and also in their penal punishment in times of peace.

SILENT ON THE SUBJECT.

A New York Firm Probably Furnishing Arms to the Japs.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—The Japanese government has ordered, it is said, 100,000 stands of guns and ammunition from a firm in this city. When questioned as to the report, the manager of the firm said: "The fact is I am not at liberty to speak concerning the matter, as the two countries are at war and a statement may do considerable harm."

When asked whether he would deny or affirm the truth of the story, he replied: "Neither. In the first place, the rules of this establishment forbid any employee to speak in reference to private contracts, especially government contracts; second, we are constantly shipping arms and ammunition to South America and other countries, and in such cases the rule referred to is always in force."

Guarding Chinese Territory.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—A dispatch from Shanghai says that Admiral Ting, acting under imperative orders, has so disposed the smaller vessels of the Chinese fleet as to prevent the Japanese from landing troops in Chinese territory. The swifter and stronger vessels are openly cruising in the gulf of Pe-Chi-Li ready to fight the Japanese, but up to this time they have not had the good fortune to meet them.

SONS OF VETERANS.

Thirteenth Annual Encampment of the Order Now in Session.

DAVENPORT, Ia., Aug. 21.—The 13th annual encampment of the order Sons of Veterans opened here at 10 o'clock yesterday morning with 300 delegates present. A number of companies of the Sons of Veterans Guard, a military branch of the order, are encamped at the fair grounds.

At the morning session of the commandery the reports of Commander-in-chief Joseph B. Maccabe of Boston, and Quartermaster General Rudolph Loebenstein of Chicago were read. They showed the order to be in good condition and $3,705.11 in the treasury.

At the afternoon session the report of the senior and junior commanders, adjutant general, inspector general, judge advocate general, surgeon general and chaplain-in-chief were read. They showed betterment of the financial condition of the order, but less membership in good standing.

The important recommendations of the commander-in-chief were that the Sons of Veteran Independent Guard, military branch, be disbanded and reorganized under the jurisdiction of the division commanderies of the order, and the order be renamed the Military Order of Sons of Veterans; that a new ritual be adopted, and sick and death benefits provided for.

In the evening the delegates were given a moonlight excursion on the Mississippi by the local entertainment committee.

GIGANTIC FRAUDS.

A Memphis Grand Jury Has Made Some Startling Discoveries.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 21.—The Memphis grand jury has unearthed frands of gigantic proportions. Through the criminal carelessness and neglect of the county officials, the state and county have been defrauded out of nearly $2,000,000 in revenue during the past eight years.

The grand jury began an investigation a few days ago, and discovered that nearly 600 saloons and several other firms embracing almost every branch of business had not paid a cent in taxes and privileges license in eight years. The jury made a partial report of its work to the criminal court yesterday, and as a result 736 indictments have been returned against the delinquents. The investigation will be continued, and it is said the jury will next turn its attention to the derelict officials. Under the statute they can be indicted for every case where they failed to collect taxes and licenses.

The investigation is the result of a change in the office of criminal judge. Judge L. P. Cooper has announced that he intends to enforce the law to the letter and every person convicted will be punished. The disclosures have created a sensation. The citizens are organizing to aid the criminal court in bringing in the delinquents to justice. The county has been hard pressed for money for several years to meet necessary expenses and it was only a short time ago that bonds were issued to raised money to repair the courthouse. Had the officials done their duty the county would have had a large surplus instead of being a borrower.

COMMONWEAL REORGANIZED.

Its Members Will Move On to Washington in December.

MASSILLON, O., Aug. 21.—J. S. Coxe announces that the proposed Labor day commonweal demonstration in Washington has been abandoned, and that the next attack on the Capitol will be made in December when congress re-assembles.

A prison stripe uniform has been adopted for the army and Carl Browne is now wearing it. The referendum has been added to the basic principles of the movement, and the whole enterprise has been reorganized with a constitution and bylaws. The word Christ has been dropped from the title "out of deference to the feelings of misunderstanding."

The returns from the Democratic primary election, slowly coming in, indicate beyond a doubt that the congressional convention will not endorse Coxe's candidacy, and that there will be a three-cornered contest. This destroys Coxe's strongest hope of success.

KRIEGERBUND CONVENTION.

German Societies Have Complete Control Over Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 21.—The Germans have complete control of Pittsburg. Flags flaunting and other decorations galore are to be found on all the principal downtown streets. Thousands of German visitors swarm in the streets and more are arriving on every train.

The chief event of the morning was the grand parade of the uniformed companies that accompanied the delegates to the Kriegerbund convention. At the end of the parade the Kriegers had a picnic at Ross grove, where Mayor McKenna delivered a welcoming address. Speeches were also made by the commanders of the different visiting committees.

The convention proper met at Masonic hall, Allegheny, with almost 200 delegates present. The business of the day was principally of a routine form.

Gored to Death by a Bull.

MOORESVILLE, Ind., Aug. 12.—John W. Harryman, living four miles east of this place, was attacked by a vicious Jersey bull belonging to him, and was gored and trampled to death. The same animal attacked Mrs. Harryman a short time ago and would have killed her had her son not come to her rescue. Since then she has been paralyzed. Mr. Harryman was nearly 50 years old. He was a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church, a member of the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias lodges and was the oldest knight in Indiana. Some years ago he edited the Martinsville Republican and still later was connected with the Chicago press.

Fired on From Ambush.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Aug. 21.—A horrible tragedy occurred five miles from the city yesterday, in which Gabe Brock, an old negro, was killed, and Mrs. Mary Edwards, an aged white lady, seriously wounded. They were driving to the city, when Brock was attacked by James Murrell and John Linchard, white men, who opened fire on him from ambush. Brock was shot dead, falling from the wagon, and Mrs. Edwards received two wounds in the face. The shooting was the result of a previous dispute between the negro and white men. Murrell was arrested, and Linchard escaped.

Stabbed at a Picnic.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Aug. 21.—At a Sunday school picnic Thomas Wyckoff was dangerously stabbed in the neck by Edward Neville, a desperado.

Herman, the Magician, Ill.

STARVING STRIKERS.

Two Thousand People Utterly Destitute at Pullman.

APPEAL FOR AID WILL BE MADE

Governor Altgeld Personally Investigates and Finds That the Stories of Starvation Have Not Been Overdrawn—A Proclamation Will Probably Be Issued Asking For Aid.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—Aid from the city, state and county will probably be solicited for the Pullman strikers. About 2,000 men are out of employment at the town and little hope of work for them remains. The relief committee has held several sessions, the object of which is believed to be the appointment of a committee to procure aid in the quarters named.

Three representative men will compose the committee and Chairman Heathcote will be at its head. To it will be delegated the task of applying to Governor Altgeld and the state and county authorities for relief. The position taken will be that there are at Pullman 2,000 unemployed and aid will be asked for them without designating the needy as strikers nor involving in the appeal the questions recently at issue. Whether the appeal will take the form of a petition or personal visit will be left to the committee.

Governor Altgeld went to Pullman yesterday to investigate the condition of the Pullman strikers. His visit was the result of a communication sent to him from the strikers stating that 1,600 families are near starvation. The governor, previous to his visit, refused to say what action he would take, but it was generally believed by the strikers that they would receive immediate assistance.

Vice President Wickes of the Pullman company called upon Governor Altgeld at the latter's office and offered to accompany the executive on his trip to Pullman. The governor received Mr. Wickes very coldly and, in a manner which was construed as a direct snub, informed the latter that he did not wish to go with him.

"I prefer to go alone," said the governor. "I think I can find my way about the town."

Mr. Wickes departed apparently highly indignant.

The governor made a personal investigation of several cases of destitution and found that the story of practical starvation had not been greatly overdrawn. After the investigation the governor asked Manager Middleton of the Pullman company if he could suggest any solution to the condition of destitution and starvation, the existence of which all of the resident officials had admitted.

"The only thing we can do," was the answer, "is to put the old men back as fast as there are vacancies in the shops."

"But this is slow and uncertain," replied Governor Altgeld, and the question is one of immediate starvation. Can't you put on a few hundred of the men and let them alternate until this condition of misery is relieved?"

Mr. Middleton said he did not see how the company could change its present plans.

The governor said it was the first time he had ever been asked for aid or help starving people, and he wanted to think it over.

He will receive the relief committee of the Pullman strikers, and ways a means of assisting the suffering will be discussed. In all probability the meeting will bear fruit in a proclamation calling upon the people of the state for help.

INSANE PEOPLE IN DANGER.

Removed From a Burning Building Without Any Being Hurt.

TOLEDO, Aug. 21.—Yesterday the industrial building at the insane asylum caught fire just as about 50 female inmates had begun work on the weekly washing for the entire institution. There was a scene of confusion for a few minutes, but the women were all removed safely.

The fire department of the asylum, with an engine from the city, subdued the flames, but the building was seriously damaged. It is fully insured. The principal loss was the clothing, sheets, etc., of the inmates and attendants, which were all destroyed. The fire was caused by spontaneous combustion.

Stricken Down With Paralysis.

FRANKLIN, Ind., Aug. 21.—Lewis Kisky, living near Nineveh, left his house Sunday morning, and was not discovered until late in the evening, when he was found lying on his face in a pasture. He was conscious, but unable to speak. The physicians pronounce it a paralytic stroke, with a very slight chance of recovery. Kisky is 26 years old and about to be married.

Failure of a Clothing Firm.

LAFORTE, Ind., Aug. 21.—Messrs. McCollum & Francis, clothiers, made an assignment yesterday. Their liabilities are nearly $9,000, with assets of an equal amount. The failure is attributed to the continual depression following the bank panic, which has almost paralyzed the clothing trade. One of the heaviest creditors is a Cincinnati firm.

Does Not Intend to Resign.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Senator John R. McPherson of New Jersey, said in an interview today, that the report that he contemplated resigning his seat in the United States senate was absolutely without foundation, and was never authorized, or even hinted at by him in any shape or form.

REPUBLICAN Senators were "lionizing" Gorman last week on his success in getting the Gorman-Brice tariff bill through the House. How he must enjoy such popularity!

CHAIRMAN SAYRES, of the House Committee on Appropriations, has completed an official statement showing that the appropriations made during the extraordinary session and the first regular session of the present Congress, including permanent appropriations, show a reduction of $28,835,989, as compared with the appropriations made at the last session of the Fifty-second Congress. Deducting the amount of the River and Harbor bill, as no such bill was passed at the last session of the Fifty-second Congress, the reduction is $40,309,169. This is in line with the pledges of the party for an economical administration.

A DISPATCH from Plattsmouth, Neb., says:

Long trains of canvas covered wagons pass daily through this city Eastward. They belong to the army of settlers who have been forced from their homes in Western Nebraska and Eastern Colorado by the unprecedented drought of the present season. Many have no particular destination in view. Their sole object is to reach some locality east of the Mississippi where they can eke out an existence until another season has rolled around and escape the hardships of a winter on the prairie. Since this exodus began it has been estimated that 10,000 people have left the State. At Plattsmouth one day last week 300 wagons were waiting to cross the bridge. One man who had driven from Holyoke, Col., said that he drove fifty miles in one stretch, and it was only at long intervals he found farms occupied.

What a piteous contrast is this with the wonderful crops with which the South has this year been blessed, remarks the Manufacturers' Record. You don't read of any such exodus as the above from the sunny Southland.

The Emma Warren Last Night.

A large crowd was at the opera house last night to witness the first appearance of the Emma Warren Company in Maysville. The play was "Foggy Ferry," a play that first brought Lizzie Evans into prominence. Miss Warren assumed the role of "Chip, the Ferry Waif," and displayed a charming creation. A song and dance was introduced during the performance and was heartily encoored. In fact the entire company firmly established themselves as artists in their respective roles.

The musical programme is made a feature. The orchestra comprises eight musicians who are certainly first class. The playing was highly entertaining. A number of new novelties were introduced, the locomotive imitations being very realistic. We bespeak for the company a good week's business.

THE SENATORSHIP.

Will Eastern Kentucky Present a Candidate For Hon. Jo C. S. Blackburn's Seat?

The Kentucky Democrat thinks there is a movement on foot in Eastern Kentucky to bring out a candidate for United States Senator, and has the following to say on that subject:

"The Democrats of Eastern Kentucky are now sizing up mentally and physically their local statesmen with the view of presenting a Senatorial candidate next year. Availability is another qualification that is being carefully looked into, and should a candidate be presented he will be a man who will have behind him the votes of the Ninth and Tenth Congressional districts. The names of several gentlemen are being canvassed and their strong and weak points discussed. Prominently among those are Judge S. G. Kinner and Hon. John F. Hager, of this county; Hon. Thomas H. Paynter, of Greenup; Judge A. E. Cole, of Mason; Hon. Frank Hopkins, of Floyd; Col. O. C. Bowles, of Pike; Hon. John P. Salyer, of Morgan, and Judge John E. Cooper, of Montgomery. However, should the latter be made Judge of the new Federal Court district his name would not be considered, as he would most likely decline Senatorial honors if they were tendered him, preferring a life position on the bench.

"Judge Kinner, of this city, would be a candidate around whom the Democracy of Eastern Kentucky would enthusiastically rally and would find supporters wherever he went, but it is doubtful whether Judge Kinner could be induced to make the race, as he is apparently well satisfied with the Judgeship of the Twentieth district, on which he seems to have a cinch for at least another term.

"The Hon. John F. Hager would also be a strong candidate, but he would be loath to give up his big law practice for a seat in the United States Senate.

"Judge Cole, who is well equipped for the place, would perhaps make the fight if a little pressure was brought to bear by his friends in this section of the State. "Messrs. Salyer, Hopkins and Bowles, it is said, are all anxious for the honor of representing the Tenth district in the Fifty-fifth Congress, and some of their friends think each would decline a race for the Senatorship; thus their desire to be a member of the House of Commons removes three good men from a fight for a seat in the House of Lords.

"They argue that he would have a solid support from this section of the State, and that his election to the Senate would create a vacancy in the Appellate bench from the Sixth Appellate district, which would most likely go to that part of the district composed of the Sixth Congressional district, and in order to create the vacancy he would have the active support of those who would want to succeed him on the bench, which would give him strength that others from this section could not command. They also urge, and not without reason, that this year's service on the Appellate bench would bring him in contact with lawyers and politicians from all sections of the State, among whom he would make many friends who would delight in helping to send him to the United States Senate, and it is said that no man ever spent a few years in Congress and retired that did not want to go back again, and especially when his going back was in the nature of a promotion, and in conclusion we would say to Senatorial candidates, keep your eye on Paynter."

Delightfully Entertained.

The young people of Washington and vicinity were delightfully entertained at the Presbyterian parsonage last Friday evening. Miss Mamie Gaines, the young hostess, was assisted in receiving by Miss Flora and Mr. John Hunter. About twenty-four young ladies and gentlemen were present, among whom were Miss Rankins, of Augusta, and Mr. Blaine, of Cincinnati. A most complicated "spider web" was the chief feature of the entertainment, in which Mr. Elmer Downing won the prize. Then games and refreshments made the remaining hours pass swiftly till midnight forced the guests to take their leave.

'A FEAST OF MUSIC,

And a Flow of Soul"—A Delightful Evening at One of Mayslick's Happy Homes.

The large and spacious residence of Mr. Eneas Myall was thrown open last Thursday evening to the Mayslick people, that they might enjoy a feast of music and a flow of soul such as is rarely vouchsafed to mortals here below.

Everything was in touch. The performers were at their best, and the large audience in a most responsive mood. Handsome and happy, they drove away under the soft light of the moon, and each one was persuaded it was one of the pleasantest evenings of his or her life.

Mr. F. M. Tinder, one of Mayslick's best loved pastors and most popular citizens, called for the selections, and each was applauded to the echo.

Miss King, of Athens, Ala., is a composer of music, and gave us some of her most exquisite creations. And as she cooed and warbled and trilled all the love notes of all the birds, it was enough to make the rocks and the stones go to love-making, and the very leaves on the trees to whisper together.

Dr. Siewers, of Cincinnati, sang a lovely ballad, and was a prime favorite of the evening.

Mrs. Fanny Jamison Featherstone, of Asheville, N. C., has been especially gifted with a rich, round voice, and it was in perfect condition as she recounted the history of her "Sailor Lad." Her bright little daughter Rhea was the star of the evening, twinkling among the planets. James Whitcomb Riley would have enjoyed the sweet little voice as it repeated "The Goblins 'll Git You."

Mrs. Hattie Mitchell Blatterman won the hearts of all who listened, as her finely trained voice insisted upon what we all know; that particular element, which, being withdrawn, "makes the town so dull." And when her beautiful tones asked, "What makes the sun to shine?" was there a girl's heart who heard her, not prepared for the sweet refrain, "Robin Adair?"

The man who wanted to make the ballads for a nation wasn't far wrong. We would all have been ballad-makers, as we passed from this sweet Scotch air to the love songs so beautifully rendered by Miss Lelia Wheeler, of Maysville. We were so glad to borrow her for awhile, for "her modest answer and graceful air, show her wise and good as she is fair."

Miss Ida Roff's talent is so widely known and unhesitatingly accepted that to mention the perfection of her impersonations for our entertainment would be to "gild refined gold."

Miss Clay and Miss Parry gave us some delightful instrumental music, and Mr. A. C. Hopkins a tenor solo in his own good style.

A feature of the evening was a quartette, of which several young ladies declared they heard but one part, and that was the bass. Prof. Chandler should educate the youth of Mayslick so that they might better distinguish the parts in music.

No one was forgotten in this social gathering and when our old teacher, Mrs. Orr, of Birmingham, Ala., was called upon to speak a few words to her pupils, she would have been less than human, if she had failed to respond to the hearty applause which greeted the very mention of her name. She paid a well deserved tribute to the dear old Kentucky homes of Mayslick and Mason County presided over by so many of her "girls and boys," and if here and there a bright eye moistened, it was the only tear of the evening. Her parting words were followed by a full chorus of "The Old Kentucky Home," sung as only Kentuckians can sing it, and she alone can tell how that old familiar song will echo down the years, until the day of her life has ended, and the shadows fall at its close.

Lut us keep our memory of this delightful August evening, freighted with moonlight and music, and let our people come together again to know each other better and to become refreshed and rejuvenated by such beautiful influences.

MAYSVILLE LOST

The game of ball Monday afternoon between the Regulars and Cynthia at the latter's grounds resulted in the defeat of the Maysville team. According to the report, the score stood 13 to 5.

This made the third game between these two teams, two here and one at Cynthia. The first was 10 to 4 in favor of the Harrison team, the second 6 to 5 in favor of the locals, and the third 13 to 5 in favor of Cynthia. They play again to-day and the Regulars' friends hope they will even up and make it two and two.

BILL MORFORD, colored, was in Squire Grant's Court Monday charged with chicken stealing, and was held in the sum of $100 to answer the charge of petit larceny. Mr. William Hughes, ex-Marshall of Chester, has been missing chickens for some time, and late Saturday or Sunday night he caught Morford carrying away four nice fryers. A year or so ago Morford was hurt on the C. and O. railroad, and underwent the operation of trephining for an injury to the skull. His friends claim he never fully recovered from the accident and that he is not responsible for his actions. Others say that the fact that he stole the chickens is proof that he is all right mentally. He was shrewd enough to offer to return the chickens on condition that he would not be prosecuted.

A STRONG TICKET

Nominated by Lewis County Democrats—Will Give the Republicans a Hot Fight.

For the first time in years Lewis County Democrats will give the Republicans a hot fight for the county offices in November.

With this end in view they have nominated what is, no doubt, the strongest ticket they ever put up.

County Judge—T. B. Harrison.
County Attorney—R. D. Wilson.
County Clerk—J. S. Gardner.
Jailer—A. G. Savage.

Mr. Harrison, the nominee for Judge, is one of the most prominent and at the same time one of the most popular citizens of the county. He is a man of ability and is held in high esteem by the best people, irrespective of party. Although the county is generally considered safely Republican, Harrison's enthusiastic friends believe he will win.

Mr. Wilson is a well known young lawyer, thoroughly fitted in every way for the position to which he aspires. He is an aggressive Democrat and will leave nothing undone to insure the success of the ticket.

The nominations of Mr. Gardner and Mr. Savage are good ones and will strengthen the ticket.

No nomination was made for Sheriff.

HOUSE AND SENATE.
A Few Bills Passed by Both Branches of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Less than 50 members were present when the house met at 12 o'clock. There were the usual indications that congress was on the eve of adjourning. Members were crowding in the area in front of the speaker's desk with requests for unanimous consent for the passage of bills of local interest to them.

Mr. Sayers, chairman of the appropriations committee, secured unanimous consent for the consideration of a bill appropriating $9,000 for an additional force for the collection of internal revenue and $5,000 for carrying into effect the arbitrations convention between the United States and Venezuela, signed at Caracas in January last. It was passed without objection.

A bill was passed on motion of Mr. Forman (Dem., Ill.) to incorporate the Association of American Florists.

Mr. McCreary (Dem., Ky.), chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, asked unanimous consent for the consideration of a joint resolution congratulating the Hawaiian republic on the perfect resumption of the powers and abilities of self-government. The resolution was offered in lieu of the Boutelle resolution. Owing to the absence of Mr. Boutelle, Mr. Bayne (Rep., N.Y.) objected.

Mr. Bland (Dem., Mo.) then demanded the regular order. Then, at 12:45, the house adjourned.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—For 15 or 20 minutes yesterday the business of the senate was suspended while the sergeant-at-arms was sent in search of an actual quorum. The senate was 18 short of a voting quorum, only 25 senators having voted on a non-political motion, thus showing that congress is slowly disintegrating. The four supplemental tariff bills were all reported from the finance committee and sent to the calendar. Several bills were passed, among them the bill for the speedy prosecution of the claim of the United States against the estate of the late Leland Stanford. At 1:40 p. m. the senate adjourned until Wednesday, after an executive session lasting 20 minutes.

CATHOLIC SISTERS AS TEACHERS.
Judge Barker of Ebersburg, Pa., Hands Down a Decision.

EBERSBURG, Aug. 21.—Judge Barker has handed down a decision in the suit brought by W. T. Kerr, state counsellor of the Junior Order United American Mechanics against the board of directors of the Gallitzin school to prevent the employment of Catholic sisters, wearing their religious garb, as teachers. The judge decides that sisters may be employed as teachers, that they may be attired in the garb of their order and that they may be addressed by pupils by their religious names, but refuses to allow the Catholic catechism taught. The costs were divided.

Indications.
Fair weather, except showers in southern portion; cooler; north winds.

FALLEN TIMBERS.
The Centenary of Wayne's Victory There Celebrated.

TOLEDO, Aug. 21.—About 5,000 people assembled Monday on the battlefield of Fallen Timbers on the Maumee river, 12 miles above this city, to celebrate the centenary of Wayne's victory. Here, on Aug. 20, 1794, he defeated the Wyandot, Ottawa and Delaware Indians, breaking the power of their confederacy, and securing peace to the then northwestern frontier. A national salute was fired at sunrise. At 10:30 the Maumee Valley Monumental association held a meeting and listened to a historical address by Colonel D. W. H. Howard.

A picnic dinner followed. The afternoon exercises consisted of music, the adoption of resolutions requesting congress to mark the spot with a suitable monument, followed by the address of the day by General Samuel F. Hunt of Cincinnati. Short addresses followed by Department Commander E. E. Nutt of Ohio and General P. S. Slevin.

Fatal Carriage Accident.
NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—A fatal carriage accident occurred last night near the marble arch in Central park. Miss Nellie Schaffner, the daughter of Mrs. Ernestine Schaffner, the "Tomb Angel," was thrown from the carriage in which she was driving and so badly injured she died soon after. Mrs. Richard Graham who was Miss Schaffner's companion in the carriage, was also severely injured.

DISAPPOINTMENT IN LOVE.

Life Not Worth Living Without Her Lover.

A Sherburne, Fleming County, Miss Hannah Wright is being closely watched by her relatives and friends.

Disappointment in love was the reason she gave for swallowing two ounces of laudanum Monday. Two physicians and a stomach pump thwarted her attempt at suicide.

Barlow Bros' Minstrels.

This minstrel organization opened at Heuck's opera house, Cincinnati, last Sunday and from the press of that city they gave a fine performance. They number thirty-five people. As Mayevillians are very fond of a first-class minstrel, the company's business here will no doubt be satisfactory to all. They will be the attraction at the opera house next Monday night.

LYDIA NELSON, Belle Carr and Anna Irvin were in the Police Court Monday, charged with breach of the peace. Lydia and Belle were fined $5 and costs each. Anna was let off with a fine of $2 and costs.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by J. The Zoo Excursion.

Thursday, August 23rd, there will be a grand excursion to the Zoological Garden in Cincinnati. These gardens were never in better shape than now. The collection of birds and animals is the largest in America, including almost every specimen known to the science of zoology. A grand circus carnival is now in progress at the Zoo. Jean P. Weitzman, the world famous high wire artist, and a monster company of specially selected acrobats and aerial artists appear in a sensational entertainment every afternoon and evening. Mr. Weitzman gives his exhibition on a wire 400 feet long stretched 100 feet above the surface of the earth. He walks and runs backwards and forwards on the wire, walks with his feet incased in baskets, in high boots, in wooden shoes, on stilts, chained hand and foot, blindfolded, on roller skates, wheeling a wheelbarrow and so on. He also carries a cooking stove to the center of the wire, cooks a meal on it and eats it. He concludes his night exhibitions with a magnificent display of fireworks. Everybody should grasp this opportunity to visit the Zoo. Those going will have the advantage of special rates. The regular admission to the Garden is 25 cents, but on this occasion tickets will be sold for 25 cents, including street car transportation from Fountain Square and return. A special agent of the Zoo will be on the excursion train, and those intending to visit it can secure tickets from him.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
